

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. Reinhard K. Sprenger

- born in 1953
- lives in Zürich und Santa Fe, New Mexico
- Study of philosophy, psychology, business administration, history, and sports at Ruhr-Universität Bochum and Freie Universität Berlin
- Receives his Doctorate in Philosophy in 1985
- Wins the "Carl-Diem"-award for his dissertation "National Identity and Modernization"
- Second philological state examination
- Scientific referee for the Ministry of Education in the state of North Rhine-Westphalia
- Executive of Human resource development and Training at 3M in Germany
- Freelance lecturer, coach and consultant for human resource development; almost all DAX companies are among his clients.

National and international press responses:

"Germany's most widely read management-author."
(Der Spiegel)

"Germany's only management-guru, who really deserves this crown."
(Financial Times Deutschland)

"If there's a management-consultant, that really made a difference in the last years, then it's Reinhard Sprenger."
(Neue Züricher Zeitung)

"The absolute star at the referee-sky."
(Training)

"Germany's management-author No. 1"
(Handelsblatt)